LANDIS FAMILY^c

1751 - 1951

Printed in the U. S. A. in August, 1951

LANDIS FAMILY 1751 - 1951

rt Fredrick Landis, wife, and nine sons came to America about the year 1751. The tenth son died on the way across the ocean and was buried at sea. Our ancestors were followers of Menno Simons. Members of the orthodox churches in Germany that did not believe in infant baptism were banished from Germany. The Landis family settled in Penn's Woods, now known as Pennsylvania. Their home was in Lancaster Co. about 7 miles north-east of Landisville. It joined farms with old General Scott.

This information was collected from family Bibles, newspaper clippings, and letters from family representatives. Promoters of this collection were Mary L. Hoover, 2619 Cass Avenue, Detroit 1, Michigan, Mabel Hoover, 1632 South Waco, Wichita, Kansas, Myrtle L. Mosier, 409 South 9th Street, Duncan, Okla., and Wilma Diener, Canton, Kansas.
